The Ambassador of Belgium to the United Kingdom and
The State Secretary for Foreign Trade at Brussels Capital Region

request the pleasure of your company at the Ambassador’s residence 36 Belgrave Square, London SW1X 8QB

on Wednesday 22nd of February 2017
at 6.00 for 6.30 pm

for a seminar on “Brussels, a Place of Arbitration”

The presentation will be followed by a walking dinner

RSVP to info@brusselstrade.co.uk by 10th of February 2017 and please provide your postal address.
The Embassy of Belgium will then send ‘pour mémoire’ cards to confirmed participants.

Background information
At the heart of Europe, the city of Brussels stands out as a seat for international arbitration. The European capital offers some unique advantages and meets all the requirements for an efficient, secure and accessible resolution of your commercial disputes in an atmosphere of trust, confidentiality, open-mindedness and plurilingualism. The Belgian arbitration law is based on the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration, and greatly favours the practice of arbitration. CEPANI is Belgium’s prime arbitration institution and the gateway to the Belgian arbitration community. The LCIA, based in London, is one of the world’s leading international arbitration institutions.

Speakers will include:
- Mrs Cécile Jodogne, State Secretary for Foreign Trade at Brussels Capital Region
- Mr Dirk De Meulemeester, President CEPANI
- Mrs Jacomijn van Haersolte-van Hof, Director General LCIA
- MM Dirk van Gerven & Marc Dal (CEPANI)
- Testimonials: Hanotiau & Van den Berg, CEW & Partners, Liedekerke