Dr Jacomijn van Haersolte-van Hof

Jackie is Director General of the LCIA. Previously, she practised as a counsel and arbitrator in The Hague, at her GAR 100 boutique HaersolteHof. She set up HaersolteHof in 2008 after three years as of counsel in the international arbitration group at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Amsterdam. She was previously with Amsterdam firm De Brauw Blackstone Westbrooke from 2000 to 2004, and before that Loeff Claeys Verbeke in Rotterdam, which she joined on her qualification in 1992.

She has sat as arbitrator in cases under the ICC, LCIA and UNCITRAL rules, as well as those of the Netherlands Arbitration Institute (NAI), on whose supervisory board she sits. She has also arbitrated cases at the Royal Dutch Grain and Feed Trade Association and the Institute of Transport and Maritime Arbitration, both based in the Netherlands. She is on the ICSID roster of arbitrators.

Adrián Magallanes Pérez

Adrián is Partner of both the Litigation and Arbitration Practices of Von Wobeser y Sierra. He has approximately 18 years of experience and frequently appears before Mexican courts and administrative agencies in various types of litigation proceedings, particularly in commercial and administrative law-related disputes. His experience also includes several class action cases, transnational litigations and constitutional law trials (amparos). His practice also expands to public procurement and public works, and he advises on public biddings. Adrián has acted as counsel in ad hoc and institutional arbitrations (ICC, LCIA, ICSID, AAA, ICDR, UNCITRAL, CAM, CANACO) in the commercial, infrastructure, energy, oil and gas and investor-state sectors. He has also acted as arbitrator in commercial cases. Furthermore, he is actively involved in FCPA investigations and due diligence cases.

Francisco González de Cossío

Francisco is a Professor of Arbitration and antitrust at the Universidad Ibericoamericana and the Escuela Libre de Derecho. He is an expert in arbitration. His main activity is acting as arbitrator in all kinds of cases, particularly in complex ones. Areas of particular specialty are construction and energy. He also acts as advocate and expert.

Claus von Wobeser

Claus is the Founding Partner as well as the Head Partner of the Dispute Resolution Practice of Von Wobeser y Sierra with more than 40 years of experience. He has acted in more than 150 international arbitration proceedings, either as arbitrator or counsel, as per the rules of the ICC, ICDR, LCIA, HKIAC, UNCITRAL, NAFTA, ICSID and ICSID Additional Facility, among others. Furthermore, his experience includes having acted as ad hoc judge of the Inter-American Human Rights Court and as conciliator in ICSID proceedings. Claus has served as Vice President of the International Court of Arbitration of the ICC, as Co-Chair to the IBA Arbitration Committee and as President of the Arbitration Commission of the Mexican Chapter of ICC. Currently, he is member of the Panel of Arbitrators of ICSID, member of the LCIA, Vice President of the Latin American Arbitration Association, among other designations.
