Tribunal Secretaries Roadshow: An LCIA Insight Behind the Curtain

Thursday 11 April 2019 | Burness Paull, Edinburgh

Seminar Format
In the 125 years since its founding, the LCIA has grown into one of the leading institutions for international commercial arbitration, administering some 300 new cases each year.

This event is designed to provide both those familiar and those less familiar with the LCIA with an engaging insight in to recent developments in relation to the LCIA. One such development is the change to the LCIA’s tribunal secretary procedures. On 26 October 2017, the LCIA introduced changes to the tribunal secretaries section of its Notes for Arbitrators. These changes emphasise the central role of communication and consent in appointing a tribunal secretary, and ensure that parties are given the opportunity to have their say.

To demonstrate the new tribunal secretary procedures in action, this event will feature a role play created in cooperation with the Young International Arbitration Group (YIAG), in which prominent members of the international arbitration community will take on the role of arbitrators and counsel, following which there will be time for Q&A with the LCIA Director General.

Who Should Attend
Arbitrators, in-house counsel, practitioners, academics, students and members of the local and international business community interested in, and affected by, current developments in arbitration and best practice.
