LCIA-LSE Arbitration Debate - 6 March 2020

Procedure and Evidence: Common v Civil Law

The fourth annual LCIA-LSE Arbitration Debate immediately precedes the annual LSE-LCIA London Vis Pre-Moot, held in preparation for the Willem C Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot in Vienna, and focuses on international commercial arbitration and the international sale of goods.

Dr Jan Kleinheisterkamp
Jan Kleinheisterkamp is an associate professor of law at LSE, where his research and teaching focuses on international commercial arbitration and contracts and investment treaty law. He has been a member of the ICC Governing Body for Dispute Resolution from 2014-2019, regularly acts as an arbitrator since 2006 and is a CEDR certified mediator.

Professor Dr Jacomijn van Haersolte-van Hof
Before becoming the LCIA Director General, Jackie van Haersolte-van Hof practised as a counsel and arbitrator in The Hague, at her GAR 100 boutique HaersolteHof. She set up HaersolteHof in 2008 after three years as of counsel in the international arbitration group at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Amsterdam.

Paula Hodges QC
Paula Hodges QC is the President of the LCIA Court and heads Herbert Smith Freehills’ Global Arbitration Practice. She has over 20 years’ experience of advising on international disputes, particularly in the energy, telecommunications and technology sectors across many jurisdictions.
